LEGION AT SUTTER
Block 3514 Lot 6
Before 2002, the Legion St Homeowners Association had a garden here. The agency that owns the lot, Housing Preservation and Development, would be willing to allow this space for interim use in the GreenThumb program. Contact us at organizers@596acres.org to get connected to the neighbors!

EAST NEW YORK AT PITKIN
Block 1476 Lot 34
This used to be a garden run by Oceanhill Brownsville Tenant Association, but now it’s sitting empty.

SARATOGA AND BLAKE
Block 3536 Lot 51
An organization called Project Eats (a program of Active Citizen Project) has a license to start a garden here, but we’re unsure when it will happen. You can contact Linda Goode Bryant, the Executive Director at 212-612-1528.

ALREADY GROWING!
Coalition of Eagle Academy, Mott Hall, Bed-Stuy Campaign Against Hunger & Brooklyn Food Coalition has a garden here. Walk by and say hello!

FUTURE COMMUNITY SPACE?
Block 3743 Lot 12
This lot is long and narrow, and according to a neighbor, it doesn’t get a lot of sun. This might be a great space for a community movie theater or a gathering space. Contact us at organizers@596acres.org or 718-316-6092 to get started!

RIVERDALE AND THATFORD
Block 3590 Lot 40
Alex, a neighbor says, “This lot has been a sore site for many years and I would like to change that. Please email me: alexfigueroa1@live.com”
