

This is Rockaway, Queens.

There's land if you want it.

Find the lot in your life. Contact the owner.

Work out a deal. Grow something. We can help.

Rockaway Residents,

Request a Vacant Public Land Visioning Session!

The visioning session is a workshop where we explain what we know about the city's land use and real estate warehousing practices, and we talk about successful tactics for getting community control of that land.

We want to scheme with you for community control of vacant land in the Rockaways in summer and fall 2012.

We will come and spend 2 hours with your group, talking about land. You provide the group, the location, some snacks and ideally a projector.

E-mail organizers@596acres.org to request a visioning session.
